Mr. Angus MacLean Thuermer
Assistant to the Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Mr. Thuermer:

This is to confirm all of our previous exchanges, written and verbal, about the appearance of Mr. Colby here in Los Angeles. We look forward to greeting and hosting him on Friday, May 3.

I was unable to secure the Century Plaza for the dinner meeting, so we have reserved the Ambassador Hotel. It is a very nice place (of Cocoonut Grove fame!) and, considering the gas situation, much better located than the Century Plaza. We have reserved a suite for the Director, and an adjoining room for the security officer. Incidentally, the dinner will be informal -- dark suits, etc.

Would it be at all possible to "internationalize" the title of the speech somewhat? "Intelligence in America Today" might be rephrased to something like: "America's Role in Global Intelligence", or anything else you might consider with an international connotation. This doesn't have to change the content of the talk in anyway. Please let me know what you think.

Also, if you would like me to invite any of the Director's personal friends or associates in the Southern California area I would be most happy to do so. I will contact you about six weeks before May 3 with all final details. Meantime, thank you again for your considerable efforts and patience in helping put together what I believe will be one of our most successful meetings.

Sincerely,

Edmonde A. Haddad
